Point of View

-  The POV character is the one telling the story
-  Readers experience the scene through the POV
-  BEWARE Head-Hopping
-  BEWARE unbalanced POVs
-  BEWARE using too many POVs

POV Goal

-  This is what the POV Character wants
-  POV Character = one goal per scene
-  BEWARE unclear POV goals in each scene
-  BEWARE too many POV goals in each scene
-  BEWARE easy POV goals in each scene

What if Goal Fails

-  POV Goal success shouldn't be guaranteed
-  This creates stakes or consequences
-  BEWARE no stakes
-  BEWARE lack of tension (more later...)
-  BEWARE lack of conflict (more later...)

Entry & Exit Hooks

-  Entry hooks draw a reader into the scene
-  Exit hooks make readers want to read on
-  The aim is to make the reader ask questions
-  They can only answer these by reading on
-  BEWARE no hooks or weak hooks

Tension & Conflict

-  Tension is the threat of something bad
-  Conflict is the bad thing actually happening
-  There should be tension in every scene
-  Tension should be related to the plot
-  Conflict should be related to the plot
